

Our Gymnastics programme again looks as developing the children's physical literacy with each year group having a different focus, such as balance, flight, travel and rotation. The benefit of having a specialised PE teacher is that all our children are able to access all of the gymnastic equipment and apparatus, such as the Swedish beams, springboards and trampettes which they would not normally experience until secondary education.