SCHOOL

A GREAT WAY TO UNLOCK YOUR CHILD'S IMAGINATION, DEVELOP
THEIR COMMUNICATION SKILLS
AND BUILD THEIR CONFIDENCE.

What is LAMDA?

The London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art (LAMDA) is the oldest drama school in the UK. The performance exams are an excellent pathway for young children to define a sense of their own identity.

Through the exploration of different texts, children are encouraged to experiment with their very own character and express themselves with freedom. They will learn to combat nerves, understand spatial awareness and use their body and face to express themselves.

All our LAMDA teachers are experienced professional actors and actresses with degrees from drama school and are fully DBS checked.

Showshack offer LAMDA lessons in Acting, Speaking Verse and Prose and Musical Theatre, and the exam pathway provides the stepping stones to higher grades, which award points towards GCSE's, A Levels and UCAS.

Our lessons are delivered as follows across a 12 week term:-

Solo lessons @ £28.50 pp for 30 mins

Duo lessons @ £21.00 pp for 30 mins

Meet Miss Hannah!

Hannah joined the Showshack team in 2023. Previous to this Hannah trained professionally at Bird College and graduated in 2019. She then continued her training at the Guildford School of Acting (GSA) achieving a MA in Musical Theatre.

"Miss Hannah is brilliant. She has a bubbly personality that all of the students love. She has helped my daughter find her voice and overcome her shyness."

Hannah has a passion for teaching and is driven to bring out the potential in every student. She is dedicated to building the confidence and skill that will help each student become successful in whatever life throws at them. Hannah also teaches at our weekend classes at Weydon and is also a LAMDA teacher, teaching 1-1 lessons throughout the week at Showshack. She is a much loved member of the team.
