Our recommended reads

A good story paints a picture with words. It leads us to far away places and allows us to experience completely different environments. But what to choose? It's easy to get stuck in a rut. Children read what their friends are reading, and often follow the crowd with the popular fiction of Diary of a Wimpy Kid, Jacqueline Wilson and David Walliams. These are undoubtedly all great books and authors (and being honest, as parents, we are usually grateful when our children are reading at all!) but when children get stuck on an author, they can find it hard to know where to go next. So, here is a short guide detailing the books that the staff at Waverley Abbey are reading at school and at home as well as some recent award winners!.

The age range is purely for guidance only—you will know your child best.
